

GRADUATE COURSE IN
"BAG DESIGN AND ACCESSORIES DEVELOPMENT"
A.A. 2016/17

I hereby declare that Sara Colombo has attended the graduate course "Bag Design and Accessories Development" during the academic year 2016-2017, with a very positive outcome. She gained 14 academic credits in the Industrial Design university field.

During the course and the various laboratories, Sara Colombo demonstrated a great creative awareness. Furthermore she demonstrated excellent technical development skills throughout the whole design process and an outstanding pattern-making craft ability.

She has been able to manage the whole project in all the phases by herself with a great awareness of materials and a good eye for details.

It has been especially appreciated her ability to work in team with colleagues and art direct technicians.
